3 Coins in the Fountain—1967

The 1967 Junior--Senior Prom, Three Coins in The Fountain, was held at the DePauw Ballroom on May 20th. Shortly after the prom was under way, the spotlight was turned upon the king and queen candidates as they entered through the archway. Then the Queen Jenny Ogles and the King Ronnie Cash were crowned by Mike Robinson and Suzanne Gorham.

Outstanding qualities in Scholarship, Service, Leadership, and Character have made these seniors eligible for National Honor Society: Sid Bryan, Mytron Lisby, Mike Ruark, Kris Phillips, Daryl Williamson, Sherry Flater, Gary Evans, Trudy Siddons, David Lister, Dave Walton, Suzanne Gorham, Stephanie Vaughn, Mike Robinson, Miss Joseph, Karen Bowen, and Jan Hurst.

These four Honor Society members were chosen as officers for the forthcoming year:

Pres.	Jan Hurst
Vice Pres.	Gary Evans
Treas.	Stephanie Vaughn
Secry.	Suzanne Gorham

Junior Band: The members of the Junior Band have almost made it into the Senior Band. The hours of practicing have been spent well.

Junior Reserve Band: The Junior Reserve Band members work diligently on their instruments in order to be good bandsmen in the future years.

Anita Lisby, a fourth-grader, proudly displays the trophy she won in twirling. She placed first in her division in state competition.

"Isn't it pretty?" Anita asks Brenda Heavin.

These young twirlers look forward to many interesting appearances at ballgames and other community activities.

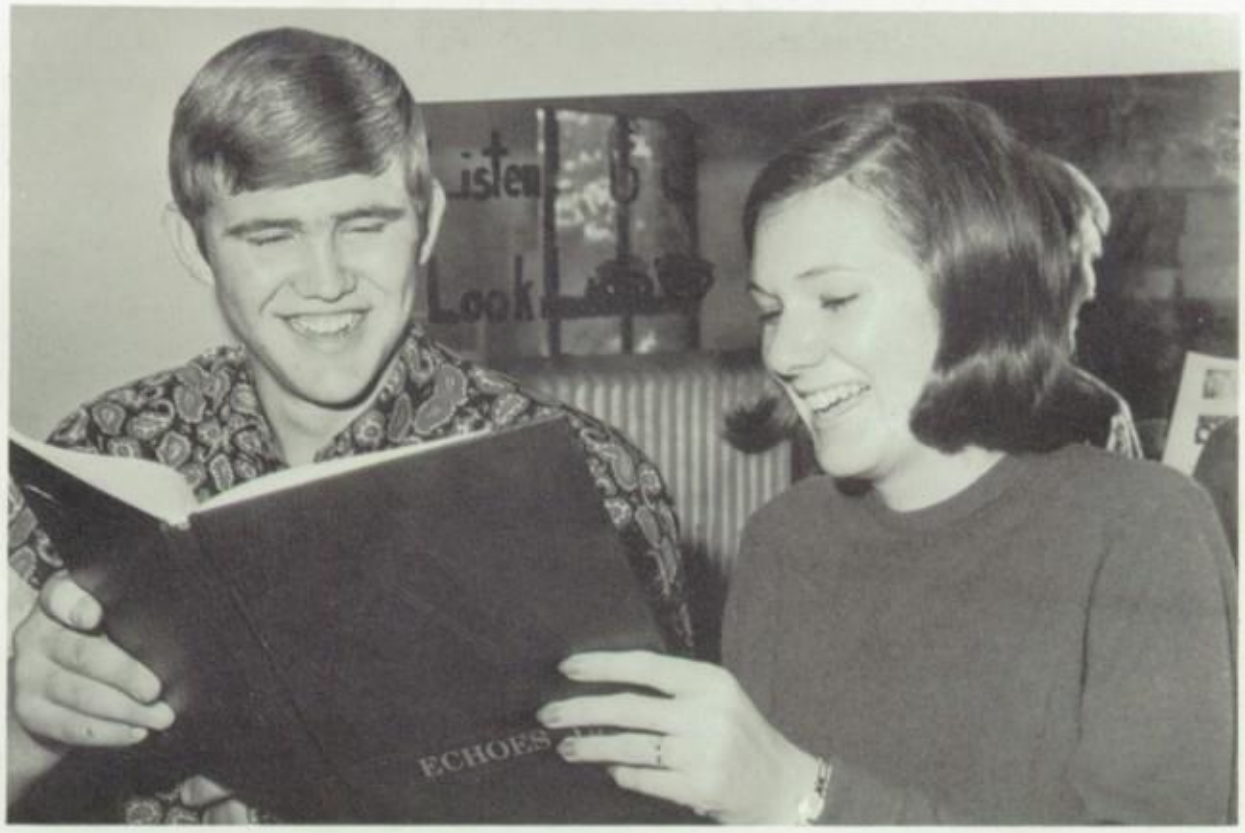
Entire Yearbook Staff

These members of the Senior Class comprise the entire ECHOES staff. Most of these Seniors have worked hard to make this year's yearbook one of the best yet. We all hope all the subscriber's to our yearbook are quite pleased with our work and will enjoy this yearbook for many years to come.

Paper Staff

These Seniors have worked quite hard this year on the school paper. They have been kept quite busy putting various types of school news in the MOVER during each six weeks term. We of the ECHOES staff wish to congratulate the paper staff on a job well done.

Co-Editors of Echoes



Sid Bryan and Jan Hurst managed and directed most of the work done on this year's ECHOES.

Echoes Staff

Daryl Williamson, Karen Bowen, Suzanne Gorham, Norman Thompson, Dave Walton, Trudy Siddons, Mike Robinson, Sherry Flater, Miss Joseph, Sid Bryan, Jan Hurst and Joe Neumeister worked very hard each day in order to meet all the deadlines of the American Yearbook Company. We all hope you enjoy the fruits of our efforts.

National Honor Society Initiates

The National Honor Society was proud to initiate seventeen new members into the ranks of scholastic excellence. All new members initiated have achieved and kept up a B grade average. Fifteen members of the Junior class and two members of the Senior class met the membership requirements of the National Honor Society and were initiated December 21, 1967.

WE FALL

In Appreciation

We, the 1968 members of the yearbook staff, wish to extend our hearty thanks to Miss Mabel Joseph, our able yearbook sponsor. Without her help and assistance our work would have been much harder. Because of her invaluable aid, we have chosen to dedicate this year's yearbook to Miss Joseph. To you, Miss Joseph, we wish many more years of prosperity and much more satisfaction from helping teenagers as you have in the past.
